

I enjoy listening to XM satellite radio. It is well worth the cost. Local radio stations have too many commercials and very little choice. It's very helpful to receive local traffic and weather information on XM. Please reject the NAB's petition 04-160, which would limit the availability of this information. Instead of attacking satellite radio, the NAB should improve its own programming and better serve its audience.